1. PREAMBLE

One of the important functions of the Bank is to accept deposits from the public for the purpose of lending. The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) is empowered to issue directives / advices on interest rates on deposits and other aspects regarding conduct of deposit accounts from time to time. With liberalization in the financial system and deregulation of interest rates, banks are free to formulate deposit products within the broad guidelines issued by RBI.

This policy document on deposits outlines the guiding principles in respect of formulation of various deposit products offered by the Bank and terms and conditions governing the conduct of the account. The document recognizes the rights of depositors and aims at dissemination of information with regard to various aspects of acceptance of deposits from the members of the public, conduct and operations of various deposits accounts, payment of interest on various deposit accounts, closure of deposit accounts, method of disposal of deposits of deceased depositors, etc., for the benefit of customers. It is expected that this document will impart greater transparency in dealing with the individual customers and create awareness among customers of their rights; thereby ensuring that the customers will get services they are rightfully entitled to receive, without demand.

2. SCOPE

This policy document on deposits by BNP Paribas, India outlines the guiding principles in respect of formulation of various deposit products offered by the Bank and terms and conditions governing the conduct of the account. The document recognises the rights of depositors and aims at dissemination of information with regard to various aspects like:

- Acceptance of deposits from customers,
- Principle of non-discrimination: Non-Discriminatory pricing for deposits of same value and same tenure
- Transparency in pricing in terms of publication of deposit rates
- Conduct and operations of various deposits accounts,
- Nomination for existing individual account
- Payment of interest on various deposit accounts,
- Premature Closure of deposit accounts, & Penal Interest thereon
- Method of disposal of deposits of deceased depositors, etc.
- Dormant Accounts

Bank reiterates its commitments to its customers outlined in 'Fair Practice Code' of BNP Paribas, India. This document is a broad framework under which the rights of depositors are recognized. Detailed operational instructions on various deposit schemes and related services will be issued by Bank from time to time.

This policy is to be read in conjunction with Reserve Bank of India's (RBI) master circular no. RBI/2015-16/59 DBR No. Leg. BC. 21/09.07.006/2015-16 dated July 1, 2015, RBI/DBR/2015-16/19 Master Direction on interest rate on deposits DBR. Dir. No.84/13.03.00/2015-16 dated March 3, 2016, and updated from time to time.

3. TYPES OF DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

The deposit products offered by BNP Paribas India can be categorized broadly into the following types.

'Demand deposits' means a deposit received by the Bank which is withdrawable on demand. Demand deposits are categorized into two types:

- 'Savings deposits' (offered only to non-individual clients for specific purposes) means a form of demand deposit which is subject to restrictions as to the number of withdrawals as also the amounts of withdrawals permitted by the Bank during any specified period;
- 'Current Account' means a form of demand deposit wherefrom withdrawals are allowed any number of times depending upon the balance in the account or up to a particular agreed amount and will also include other deposit accounts which are neither Savings Deposit nor Term Deposit.

'Term/Fixed deposit' means a deposit received by the Bank for a fixed period withdrawable only after the expiry of the fixed period. As a practice, BNP Paribas India offers only non-callable Term deposits beyond INR 3 crores or above, which cannot be prematurely withdrawn by the customer unless otherwise approved as per the sole discretion of the bank.

- 'Deposits below 3 crores' means single Rupee term deposits of amount less than INR 3 crores
- 'Bulk Deposit' means single Rupee term deposits of INR 3 crores and above
- 'Flexi Deposits' means a form of Term / Fixed deposit which are created automatically in the systems for balances above a pre-agreed threshold in a pre-agreed unit size. Flexi deposits are offered to customers on their request (in an application format prescribed by the bank), basis any of the above four deposit rate cards (as published from time to time) i.e. Deposits below 3 crores, Bulk Deposits, or T-bill linked
- 'T-Bill linked Deposit' means a type of Term / Fixed deposit where the pricing is linked to T-bill rates, as published by FBIL, and adjusting for bank margin. Currently, the bank offers T-bill linked Deposits only between 7-13 day tenor, as published. The tenor may be increased basis specific approvals from Transaction Bank (TB) Head India and from India COO.
- 'Sustainable Deposit' means a type of corporate deposit offering by BNP Paribas S.A. that is specifically designed to support the Bank's global portfolio of loans with direct contribution to the achievement of the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals, as defined in the Bank's Global KPI methodology. 'Sustainable Deposits' are not to be interpreted as / confused with 'Green Deposits' as per RBI's Framework on Acceptance of Green Deposits dated 11th April, 2023. BNP Paribas India does not offer any 'Green Deposits'.
- The bank used to offer a Simple Effective Rate (SER) in the past, which is no longer offered for any new deposits. All legacy deposits on this legacy rates will be set to the prevailing rates on the day of the next rollover, if any.

4. ACCOUNT OPENING AND OPERATION OF DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS

A) The Bank before opening any deposit account will carry out due diligence as required under "Know Your Customer" (KYC) guidelines issued by RBI and other norms or procedures decided by the Bank from time to time. If the decision to open an account of a prospective depositor requires clearance at a higher level, reasons for any delay in opening of the account will be informed to him/her and the final decision of the Bank will be conveyed at the earliest to him/her.

B) The Account Opening Forms and other information would be provided to the prospective depositor by the Bank. The same will contain details of information to be furnished and documents to be produced for verification and/or for record. Bank official while opening the account, will explain the procedural formalities and provide necessary clarifications sought by the prospective depositor when he approaches for opening a deposit account.

C) For Current Deposit Account, BNP Paribas may stipulate certain minimum balances to be maintained as part of terms and conditions governing operation of such accounts. Failure to maintain minimum balance in the account will attract levy of charges as specified by the Bank from time to time. Bank charges for issue of cheque books, additional statement of accounts, folio charges, processing fees etc. and the terms and conditions for operation of the accounts and schedule of charges for various services provided will be communicated to the prospective depositor while opening the account.

D) Savings Bank Accounts can be opened for non-individual eligible customers and certain organizations / agencies (As advised by Reserve Bank of India (RBI) from time to time).

Current Accounts can be opened for non-individuals such as partnership firms / Private and Public Limited Companies / Specified Associates / Societies / Trusts, etc.

Fixed Term Deposit Accounts can be opened by non-individuals such as partnership firms / Private and Public Limited Companies / Specified Associates / Societies / Trusts, etc.

E) The due diligence process, while opening a deposit account will involve satisfying about the identity of the person, verification of address, satisfying about his occupation and source of income. Obtaining introduction of the prospective depositor from a person acceptable to the Bank and obtaining recent photograph of the person/s opening / operating the account are part of due diligence process.

F) In addition to the due diligence requirements under "Know Your Customer" (KYC) norms, the Bank may as required by law obtain Permanent Account Number (PAN) or General Index Register (GIR) Number or alternatively declaration in Form No. 60 or 61 as specified under the Income Tax Act / Rules, in addition to other documents in support of proof of identity/proof of address etc. In certain cases, as the Bank may decide, Bank may waive these documents and allow open the account based on satisfactory introduction

G) Bank shall obtain, as required by the latest update to the PML Rules, Aadhar (unique-identity number issued to all Indian residents based on their biometric and demographic data) & Permanent Account Number (PAN) issued by Income Tax authorities who have been classified as mandatory documents for KYC for individuals and for person holding an attorney to transact on behalf of non-individuals.

H) The term deposit account holders at the time of placing their deposits can give instructions with regard to closure of deposit account or renewal of deposit for further period on the date of maturity. In absence of such mandate, the Bank will seek instructions from the depositor/s as to the disposal of the deposit by sending intimation on or before the maturity date of term deposit.

I) Nomination facility is available on all existing deposit accounts opened by the individuals. Nomination is also available to any existing sole proprietary concern account. Nomination can be made in favour of one individual only. Nomination so made can be cancelled or changed by the account holder/s any time. While making nomination, cancellation or change thereof by specified category, it is mandatory to be witnessed by a third party as prescribed under Banking Regulation Act, 1949. Nomination can be modified by the consent of account holder/s. Nomination can be made in favour of a minor also.

Bank recommends that all depositors avail nomination facility. The nominee, in the event of death of the depositor/s, would receive the balance outstanding in the account as a trustee of legal heirs. The depositor will be informed of the advantages of the nomination facility while opening a deposit account.

J) A statement of account will be provided by the Bank to Savings Bank as well as Current Deposit Account Holders periodically. Such statement can be sent electronically whenever holder so desires.

K) The deposit accounts may be transferred to any other branch of the Bank at the request of the depositor.

5. INTEREST PAYMENTS

- i) For existing Saving Accounts, Interest shall be paid Quarterly at the rate published by the bank from time to time. Term deposit interest rates are also decided by the Bank within the general guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India from time to time, and will be made available for information to all on website of the Bank.
- ii) In terms of Reserve Bank of India directives, interest shall be calculated at quarterly intervals on term deposits and paid at the rate decided by the Bank depending upon the period of deposits. The interest on term deposits is calculated by the Bank in accordance with the formula and conventions of Indian Banks' Association. If a Fixed Deposit Receipt matures and proceeds are unpaid, the amount left unclaimed with the bank will attract savings bank rate of interest
- iii) The card rate of interest on term deposits will be displayed in the branch premises/available with Branch Manager, and on Bank's website. Changes, if any, with regard to the deposit schemes and other related services shall also be communicated upfront and shall be prominently displayed.
- iv) As a general rule, bank shall accept deposits for the tenure mentioned in the rate card. An exception if any can be made for a longer-term bulk deposit with a prior approval from the Transaction Banking Head of the Bank. The principles of non-discrimination and transparency in pricing shall be adhered to in all such cases.
- v) The Bank has statutory obligation to deduct tax at source if the total interest paid / payable on all term deposits held by a person exceeds the amount specified under the Income Tax Act. The Bank will issue a Tax Deduction Certificate (TDS Certificate) at the end of financial year/Quarter for the amount of tax deducted. The depositor, if entitled for exemption from TDS can submit a declaration in the prescribed format well in advance.
